Enjoy a delicious lunch at the DoubleTree by Hilton Hotels Iquitos. On the road to the main dock to board the cruise ship we will enjoy a panoramic tour of the city of Iquitos.

Our staff will show you to your suite, which will be equipped with comfortable beds, 100% Peruvian Pima cotton sheets, cotton bathrobes, air conditioning and a private bathroom with a shower and amenities. Before setting sail, our bartender will serve you a cocktail prepared with local fruit and pisco, the most popular liquor in Peru. You can sip it while enjoying 360° views from the observation deck or a panoramic view from the indoor or outdoor lounge.

After setting sail, our naturalist guides will offer an overview of the travel itinerary, including activities, routes, information about wildlife and vegetation, geographical and historical context, as well as other useful info. If you have any doubts or concerns, our guides are always available to answer your questions. We'll then enjoy the welcome dinner. Start your journey by dining Peruvian cuisine with an Amazon flare. There are many options on our menu, including vegetarian alternatives. Please let us know in advance if you have any special dietary needs. After dinner, you'll be able to take in stunning views of the starry night sky while we start our journey to the to the depth of the Amazon rainforest.

MAY 24: AMAZON CRUISE

Before breakfast, we'll go out for a boating expedition on the Amazon River to explore the local flora and fauna. When you get back, enjoy our breakfast buffet, which offers a daily selection of traditional dishes, Peruvian specialties, freshly baked goods and a range of freshly squeezed juices. After breakfast, we'll head out to see the confluence of the Ucayali and Marañón rivers, which give rise to the Amazon River. Here we'll observe pink and gray river dolphins.

We'll go back to the boat for lunch by midday and then have time to rest. Make sure you attend the talk about the source of the Amazon and the hydrography of the river so that you'll be up to speed for our walk to Puerto Prado, where we'll see the Victoria Amazonica, the largest water lily in the world. We'll then head back to the boat for dinner and live music.

After dinner, we'll enjoy a nighttime outing in search of caimans, tarantulas, frogs and other nocturnal species.

MAY 25: AMAZON CRUISE

Breakfast and outing on skiff to different lakes and lagoons, until we reach the Japanese Lagoon. There, we'll enjoy a picnic and one of the best conserved and protected areas of the Pacaya Samiria National Reserve. It's also a popular spot to view pink river dolphins from the skiff.

Before heading back to the Zafiro, we'll take a trip to the Yanaquillo. Once we're back on the cruise ship, we'll get ready to go kayaking and take a dip in the black waters.

Head back for lunch aboard the Zafiro. Before starting the afternoon activity, our guides will give a talk about the Amazon philosophy. Afterward, we'll take a walk through the rainforest over hanging bridges, where you can admire the riches of the rainforest from the treetops.

Once we're back on the Zafiro, our bartender will give a demonstration of how to make Peruvian cocktails, and we'll then enjoy live music while we await the gala dinner with the captain.

MAY 26: AMAZON CRUISE

Breakfast and visit to the community of San Regis, where we'll learn about the local people's way of life and traditions. We'll also learn about their ancestral traditions from the community's shaman. With our guides as interpreters, we'll be able to ask questions about spiritual connections and curing the soul. We'll then continue the ceremony by planting a tree as a positive contribution to the environment. There, we'll also see a market set up by women from the community to sell their handmade crafts.

Head back for lunch aboard the Zafiro. After resting, the guides will tell us about the myths and legends of the Amazon. In the afternoon, we'll head out on a skiff to the Shiriyacu stream.

There, we'll find a good spot to do some piranha fishing using local techniques and equipment. Back on the boat, we'll enjoy the stunning colors of the sunset. Return to the Zafiro, live music and dinner.

MAY 27: AMAZON CRUISE – IQUITOS – LIMA

Before breakfast, we'll visit Nauta, the second most important city in the region. Upon arriving, we'll take a motorcycle taxi to the local market where we'll see what business in the city is like firsthand. After, we'll head back to Zafiro cruise for breakfast. After breakfast we will proceed to disembark. On the way to the airport, we will visit the Manatee Rescue Center (Amazon Forever Organization) where biologists and volunteers care for manatees, an endangered species that authorities have rescued. We will learn how manatees are treated and prepared for their return to their natural habitat. Likewise, we will be able to see other animals that have also been rescued. We will invite you to make a donation to this dedicated organization and study center.

Afterwards, you'll be transferred to the airport.

Effective since January 1, 2019, the Government of Peru is enforcing a new immigration law that requires all foreign travelers to have a minimum of six months' validity on their passports upon entry into Peru.

The US Embassy in Peru notified this information through a press release, adding that "travelers not meeting this requirement will be denied boarding at their point of origin, while transferring planes, or denied entry into Peru, upon arrival".

If this were to happen, the travelers will have to return to their point of origin, so it is important to verify your documents before travel.

"The US Embassy cannot intervene on behalf of travelers not abiding by Peruvian immigration law." The press release informed.

Optional tours in Machu Picchu:

Half Day Huayna Picchu (private tour)

This morning, climb Huayna Picchu, the towering mountain behind the actual site of Machu Picchu. The fabulous views from the top are worth the climb. In the trajectory and the top, you will appreciate sacred enclosures and admirable patios constructed on the abyss. You will have an impressive sight of Machu Picchu in all its splendor, the cannon of the Vilcanota, and the surrounding mountains. The hike to the top of Huayna Picchu takes approximately three hours (this includes the ascent, descent, and time at the top) and reaches an elevation of 2,720 meters above sea level (m.a.s.l.). Take care in wet weather as the steps get slippery.

-Difficulty: Moderate to Challenging (steep, narrow, and uneven steps)

Due to steep and narrow paths, this trail is not suitable for those with vertigo or a fear of heights.

Half Day Machu Picchu Mountain (private tour)

This morning, climb Machu Picchu Mountain, located to the south of the citadel. We will have an impressive sight of Machu Picchu in all its splendor, the cannon of the Vilcanota, and the surrounding mountains. The hike to the top of Machu Picchu Mountain takes approximately three and a half hours (this includes the ascent, descent, and time at the top) and reaches an elevation of 3,082 meters above sea level (m.a.s.l.).

-Difficulty: Moderate to Challenging (a long but gradual climb along a wide trail)

Optional tours in

Cusco:

Chocolate Museum Visit (Private Tour)

Learn all about the chocolate-making process with a 2-hour hands-on chocolate-making workshop. Learn about the origin of chocolate, which is derived from the cocoa tree that grows in the Peruvian Amazon jungle. Then learn to make chocolates with milk or dark chocolate and more than 15 flavors.
